

Activity sheet

Fact-finding mission

The Premier League connects players from all around the world. As of March 2020, over 100 different nations have been represented by Premier League footballers.

In the 2019/20 season, the countries with the most players are:

England (210), Spain (32), France (31), Republic of Ireland (26), Brazil (23), Netherlands (19)

Fill in the gaps

Can you use the Premier League website www.premierleague.com/players to find out where your favourite players come from? Try filling in the gaps below to make a fact file for one country. You might even know someone from that country who can help you.

Fact file

Country name	Capital city	A Premier League footballer from this country
How to say "hello" here	Famous food(s)	Interesting facts
Flag		