

The challenge

Internet detectives

Your challenge this week is to use the internet to research your favourite Premier League player. It doesn't matter if they are current or a past player. The first step is to use the Detective card below to get your research started. Once you've completed the Detective card, fill in the footballing hero template and share them with us.

Websites to consider using to start you off:

- premierleague.com
- bbc.co.uk/sport/football/premier-league
- bbc.co.uk/sport
- When inserting images of your footballing hero, use the Premier League website.

The challenge - Step 1

Detective card - all about your footballing hero

Tick these suggestions off as you go to help you gather information about your footballing hero.

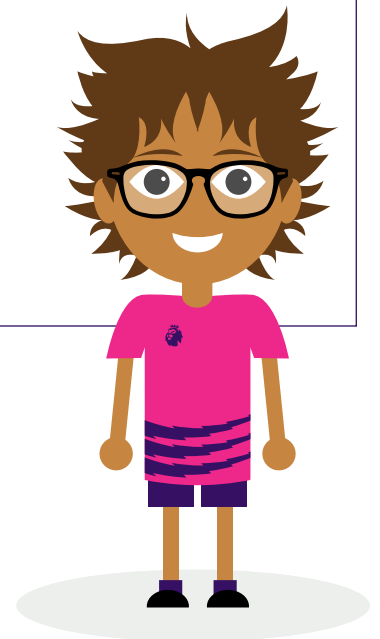

- Find a fact you didn't know before about your hero. (Remember to make sure it's reliable!)
- Think about how researching your hero online is making you feel and tell someone you trust.
- Check three sources to make sure something is reliable/true. (Use the tips on the True or false activity sheet.)
- Find an article or video online where someone is giving an opinion about your footballer hero.
- Once you've completed your footballing hero's fact file, share them with us @PLCommunities, using #PLPrimaryStars and #SaferInternetDay or email it to us PLPrimaryStars@premierleague.com.
- Use a search engine to look up your footballer and see if you can spot any sponsored results.
- Find something that is funny or interesting about your footballing hero.
- Find an image of your hero.
- Spend some time researching one of the sections on the fact file template with an adult you trust.
