

Family quiz sheet Ocean plastic pollution quiz

Instructions:

You can try the quiz at home with your family or set up a call and quiz your friends. Read the question aloud to your parent, carer, other member of your family or a friend. Explain that there are four possible answers to choose from. Ask them to choose only one – a, b, c, or d. Check the answer. The answers are hidden at the bottom of page 2.

Premier

eaque

- plastic that is only used once (for less than a week) single-use
- 1. c) 40% In Europe, almost half of plastic is only used once. We call
- 2. a) 9% This means 91% is not recycled and not all recycled plastic plastic, which is also known as SUP.

debris floating in the ocean for hundreds or thousands of years.

is completely biodegradable. This means plastic may exist as

- not disappear for many years and is likely to cause health risks

  - - - 3. a) Every minute
- 2. d) 500-1000 years This means that the plastic in our oceans will

  - - 4. d) 46,000

- to wildlife.

d. 500-1000 years

- a. 5-10 years c. 200-400 years
- around 498 school football pitches  $\bigcirc$ PLASTIC WASTE BREAK DOWN  $\bigcirc$ MICROPLASTIC  $\bigcirc$ MISTAKE  $\bigcirc$ FOR FOOD

1km<sup>2</sup> =

plastic to break down naturally so that it disappears?

b. 50-100 years

- 5. How many years does it take for
- a. 46 с. 4600 b. 460 d. 46000
- pieces of plastic per square kilometre of the world's oceans.

4. It is estimated that there are now __?

Family quiz sheet Ocean plastic pollution quiz

Premier

League